

SENECA SPOTLIGHT

MURAL MANIA MOVES INTO DOWNTOWN SENECA

'SENECA STRONG CITYSCAPE'

ARTIST: MICHELLE WINNIE

Next door to Seneca City Hall
221 E. N. First Street

Depicts some of the happenings that occur in Seneca along with the people who enjoy them. It is an interactive mural and invites viewers to become part of the painting.

"POSTCARDS FROM OCONEE"

ARTIST: FRED EDGERTON

On side of Summary Court Building
207-A E. N. First Street

The murals each focus on a different aspect of the outdoor recreational opportunities in the Seneca and Oconee area: golf, kayaking, and hiking in beautiful Oconee County.

"SENECA TRAIN DEPOT CIRCA 1950"

ARTIST: JIM JURAS

Located on building across from Keowee Brewing which is on E. Main Street.

The mural depicts a typical day at the Seneca train depot circa 1950. It is in sight of the actual depot and if you listen carefully, you can almost hear the train whistle of long ago.

Murals are a joint project between the City of Seneca & the Blue Ridge Arts Center

Snapshots from around the

Congratulations to Firefighter Dash Lucero for being nominated by Chief Richie Caudill and chosen Firefighter of the Year by the Blue Ridge Electric Cooperative and the Oconee County Sheriff's Department.

Left photo: L to R, Helen Westmoreland, outreach coordinator, Oconee County Sheriff's Department; Chief Richie Caudill; and, Firefighter Dash Lucero.

Right photo: L to R, Rebekah Lucero; Dash Lucero; and Chief Richie Caudill.

Decorating for this year's Holiday Light show has already begun. It's less than a month away! The Seneca Police Department stopped by to lend a helping hand as part of their Community Outreach Program.

Left, Interim Chief Casey Bowling and officer Noe Sudduth shown decorating poles at the Norton-Thompson Pavilion.

Right, Officers Casey Elrod and Aaron Alexander take on the red lights.

Members of the City's Buildings & Projects Dept. shown installing Seneca's new murals.

FREE! Bring The Whole Family!

The Magical Musical

Holiday Light Show

Tune in to 91.7
Enjoy the Music in Your Car

Drive through, walk or bring your chair and enjoy the festivities.

at Norton-Thompson Park
Begins NOVEMBER 20 • 5:30-10 PM

CITY OF SENECA
Join Mayor Dan Alexander in the Tree Lighting ceremony

Monday, Nov. 30, 2020 • 5 PM • Norton-Thompson Park

CHRISTMAS PARADE
MONDAY, NOV. 30 • 6 PM
The parade route is Oak Street (Hwy 59) to travel along North First Street, Right on Cherry Street, Right on Main Street, Passing through RamCat Alley.

Performances by:
Clemson Elite Dancers
Uncle Dave & Friends • Brandi Colt

Follow us on Facebook Seneca SC Events // More info at www.seneca.sc.us

MASKS MUST BE WORN. SOCIAL DISTANCING MUST BE STRICTLY OBSERVED. DO NOT ATTEND CITY EVENTS IF YOU ARE SICK. If you choose to attend City events, we strongly advise you to observe all CDC guidelines and understand that you are attending at your own risk. The City of Seneca has been awarded a Special Permit by the Governor's office to hold special City events PROVIDED we closely follow all CDC COVID-19 regulations. If we cannot show full compliance, the Governor's office will rescind permission for the City to hold events and the remaining events will be cancelled.

2020 HOLIDAY GARBAGE COLLECTION SCHEDULE

Nov 11 Veterans Day	Normal Schedule
Nov 26, Thanksgiving Day	Normal Schedule
Friday, Nov 27	Normal Schedule
Dec 24 Christmas Eve	Normal Schedule
Dec 25 Christmas Day	Collection day will be Monday, Dec 28th
Wed, January 1, 2021	Normal Schedule

Happenings in the

CITY OF SENECA

ONLINE REGISTRATION ONLY
GO-GREENEVENTS.COM
5K & HALF MARATHON
$50 FOR HALF-MARATHON
$25 FOR 5K

GREAT SWAG!

CASH PRIZES TO
TOP 3 FINISHERS
IN EACH RACE!

FOLLOW US ON FACEBOOK RACE FOR THE GREEN @ SENECA CAROLINA
MORE INFO AT WWW.SENECA.SC.US

: 313 :
CAFE

JAZZ ON THE ALLEY FEATURING THE JAMIE WRIGHT CHRISTMAS REVIEW

A Jazzy CHRISTMAS

Thursday, Dec. 17 • 5-8 pm
Ram Cat Alley
Downtown Seneca

*Join Us for an Evening of Christmas Caroling &
Special Visit by Santa!*

*See you next year,
Jazz!!*